Fernanda Cunha - Zingaro

Smooth Jazz Therapy has always followed the career of Latin vocalist Fernanda Cunha with great interest and now, with her new album 'Zingaro' on the way, she is all set for two festival appearances in Canada. She will perform with pianist Ricardo Rito in Toronto, as part of the TD Canada Trust Jazz Festival, at Lula Lounge on June 26th when they will play a selection of songs by significant Brazilian composers such as Jobim, Joao Donato, Johnny Alf and Eumir Deodato.

Three days later the duo will be in Vancouver for yet another festival performance where, in the company of special guest Celso Machado, they will mark the 50th anniversary of the bossa nova sound with what is expected to be another stellar performance.

'Zingaro' is Fernanda's third album. Her first release, 'O Tempo E O Lugar', was recorded June 2002 in Cleveland Ohio and was followed in 2005 by 'Dois Coracoes' ('Two Hearts'), her tribute to the compositions of Sueli Costa and Johnny Alf. This moody late night collection for lovers found Cunha weaving her vocal magic in the most stunning of ways and with 'Zingaro' she is following that same enticing formula. With featured music from the songbooks of Antonio Carlos Jobim and Chico Buarque the album confirms Fernanda as a worthy contemporary of Brazilian music notables Astrud Gilberto and, indeed, Jobim himself.
